kindling Gathering the twigs to build the fire has never been more fun with K. Brunini's 18-kt yellow gold ($7,425) and sterling silver cuffs, each finished with end-caps of baroque pearls (osterjewelers.com).

stone's throw

GO GREEN // This curvy turquoise ring from Ippolita is mounted on an 18-kt yellow gold cradle. No two are alike, thanks to the popular stone's naturally burnished veins ($3,100; ippolita.com).

wood you please?

A masterpiece of 22-kt gold filigree and highly polished, handcut exotic rosewood, this large bangle from Maya Jewels ($16,000) was honored with Town & Country's Couture Design Award in 2006 for its original and luxurious design by Chhaya Kapadia (mayajewels.com).
