

Autumn Golf: A Celebration in Pictures

COLORADO
AVID GOLFER

Golf. Life. Style.

The Education of

Jay Cutler

Michael Kang
of the String Cheese Incident

PLUS:

Confessions of a Golf Widower

How to Ball-Proof
Your Home

Sure Bets in Vegas

FALL 2007 | $3.95

COLORADOAVIDGOLFER.COM

LADIES' CHOICE

Bling Thoughts

Tired of leaving your favorite jewelry at home when you play golf? Melissa Oster, co-owner of Oster Jewelers (251 Steele St., Denver; 303-572-1111), says you don't have to. | By Mary Scott

If the pros flash bling, why shouldn't you? These Stefan Hafner chandelier diamond earrings ($6,400) pair with the matching necklace ($14,600).

Crafted in Italy, each Calgareo piece is made of sterling silver. Match the sleek orange bracelet ($325) with simple bar earrings ($320).

"A thing of mechanical beauty" might not always describe your golf swing, but it certainly defines the Caprice from Swiss horologist Ulysse Nardin (from $4,950).

This light, 18-karat rose-gold piece by Marchisio ($1,045) won't interfere with your swing. Enhance it with the 18-karat gold charm ($750).

PHOTOGRAPH BY HEATHER MACARTHUR